

Joint Ministerial Statement
The 6th CTI-CFF Ministerial Meeting (MM-6)
3 November 2016, Port Moresby – Papua New Guinea

The 6th CTI-CFF Ministerial Meeting (MM-6) was held on 3 November 2016 in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea. The Meeting was chaired by the Hon. John Pundari, CMG, MP, Minister for Environment and Conservation & Climate Change and attended by Hon. Datuk Seri Panglima Madius Tangau, Minister of Science, Technology and Innovation of Malaysia; Hon. Samuel Manetoali, Minister of Environment, Climate Change, Disaster Management and Meteorology of Solomon Islands; Hon. Estanislau Aleixo da Silva, Minister of State, Coordinating Minister for Economic Affairs and Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries of Timor-Leste; H.E. Dr. Suseno Sukoyono, Minister's Advisor to the Ministry of Marine Affairs and Fisheries of Indonesia for Public and Inter-Agency Relations; and H.E. Marcial C. Amaro, Jr, Assistant Secretary for Field Operations of Department of Environment and Natural Resources of the Philippines;

Bearing in mind that the Coral Triangle Initiative Leaders' Declaration on Coral Reefs, Fisheries and Food Security signed on 15 May 2009 in Manado, Indonesia sets the the fundamental foundation to conserve and sustainably manage coastal and marine resources within the Coral Triangle region;

Recognizing that the coastal, marine and fisheries sectors have substantial resources to provide vital contribution to national socio-economic development, economic revitalization and reduction of poverty in the short, medium and long term;

Considering the marine environment is facing a number of man-made and natural threats such as coastal development, watershed-based pollution, marine-based pollution and damage, overfishing and destructive fishing, and climate change that leads to increasingly degraded reefs and marine resources;

Noting that marine and fisheries sectors have a huge potential as a driver of food security, environmental sustainability and economic opportunity which requires solid collaborative effort to consolidate marine biodiversity policies; and

Recalling the commitments of CTI-CFF to pursue the tangible implementation of Regional Plan of Action (RPOA) and to transform such goals along with its targets and regional actions into workable action-plans with mutual and coherent coordination at CTI-CFF national levels.
